Cancer Care Northwest (CCNW) Foundation is a non-profit organization that helps Inland Northwest cancer patients and their families through educational, emotional and financial support. CCNW Foundation may offer:

- Limited financial support for basic necessities such as transportation, prescriptions, groceries and rent
- Counseling for families through cancer support groups, including an exclusive group for children called Kidz Count
- Grants for local cancer research initiatives

Your donation helps ensure that Inland Northwest cancer patients and their families have the support they need throughout their journey with cancer.

Event Performers

Eli Young Band: The musical band of brothers – Mike Eli, James Young, Jon Jones and Chris Thompson – play their own instruments, write their own songs and cling fast to their Texas roots. The trailblazing group has always been unique in modern Country music and have come a long way since their formation in 2000 at the University of North Texas. Eli Young Band has amassed 14 Billboard charting singles, including four No. 1 hits via 3x Platinum “Crazy Girl,” 2x Platinum “Even If It Breaks Your Heart” and Platinum “Love Ain’t” and “Drunk Last Night.”

Ryder Grimes: Born and raised in the rural Texas town of Poetry, Ryder Grimes was raised up doing things the country way. On stage since he was 11 years old, Ryder grew up with burning love and passion for country music. After years of learning from his inspirations, Ryder now writes songs of his own to sing, spends hours in the studio recording his new music, and travels across the country to share his music.
